

Save the date!

A conference for community developers in BC

Join us in Vancouver May 17th through 19th, 2010 for a gathering of people engaged in community development work across BC.

Conference participants will:

- Acquire knowledge about community development in BC
- Grow professionally through skill building workshops on community development techniques
- Exchange ideas and network with community developers and funders from diverse sectors
- Help shape the future of the community development movement in BC

When: May 17th (evening only), 18th, 19th, 2010

Where: Vancouver, First Nations Longhouse at UBC, located on the traditional territory of the Musqueam people

How to register: Pre-registration and information is available at the following www.sparc.bc.ca/community-developers-conference-2010
Conference program and full registration coming in late February

Presented by the Capacity Development Consortium and the Community Social Planning Network of BC, with support from the Community Capacity Building Strategy at the BC Healthy Living Alliance and SPARC BC

An initiative of these
BC Healthy Living Alliance members

THE LUNG ASSOCIATION™
British Columbia

 sparc bc

people. planning. positive change.